CAPT. VON PAPEN IN HOLLAND ON SECRET ERRAND

Amsterdam, Netherlands, June 3.—Capt. Franz von Papen, recalled at the request of the United States government as military attaché of the German Embassy at Washington, and who has come to Holland on a secret mission, has a purpose which is threefold, according to the Amsterdam Telegraaf. This newspaper does not mention Capt. von Papen by name but alludes to him as "first-class specialist who only recently arrived here after covering himself with world-wide fame in the exercise of functions in another neutral country."

The Telegraaf says that the "specialist" has come here, first, to obtain information of military and political nature; second, to watch foreigners residing or visiting Holland; and, third, to endeavor to influence public opinion in favor of Germany.

The German "secret information service" in Holland is being reorganized, the Telegraaf asserts, and of the "specialist" along this line being the centralizing of diverse and scattered elements of the Teutonic espionage service in this country. He has service at The Hague and progress has been made with the organization of established the Central Protective Service at Rotterdam, according to the newspaper, which declares that similar efforts at Amsterdam have been a little backward.

In the Rotterdam branch of the service, the Telegraaf says, 142 men and 62 women have been enrolled, recruited principally among waiters, porters and other hotel and cafe employees.

CHINESE PREMIER OF WAR SEEKS TO QUELL OUTBREAKS

Peking, June 3.—Marshal Tuan Chih-jui, the new premier and minister of war, has announced that he has the assurance of the military and police officers in Peking that they will cooperate with him in quelling disturbances which may arise as a result of the unsettled political conditions in China.

Marshal Tuan Chih-jui has held a conference with his chief of staff, General Wong Shih-teeng, Lu Cheng-hsiang, minister of foreign affairs; Tsao Jui-shin, minister of communications; Sun Fao-chi, minister of finance, and Wang Yi-tang, minister of the interior, in which they discussed procedure should the resignation of the President, Yuan Shi-kai, become imperative.

Foreigners in Peking have been reassured by the announcement that Yuan Shi-kai's withdrawal would not leave the central government wholly at sea. The new cabinet is inclined to conform as closely as possible with the terms of the provisional constitution of the republic, which provides that the vice-president shall become head of the government upon resignation of the president. Consequently should Yuan Shi-kai leave office, Li Yuan-hung will probably become the chief executive pending the election of a formal national assembly.

With the Germans, a great many Austrians and Turks have been expelled. Large and important firms have been forced to discontinue business and number of factories have closed. ADVERTISE IN THE FARMER.

The Nutmeg State of Mind

Certain folk with the nutmeg state of mind seem sure that a dark and fearsome scheme is behind these advertisements.

Perhaps it would have been better in the beginning to disappoint these cautious souls by assuring them there will be uncovered no plan to sell them moonbeams on toast nor building lots under the bay.

The only thing they are asked to buy is a little faith in Bridgeport, a belief in its future—if they do not possess these things.

They are asked to buy a conviction—if they haven't one of their own—that we can keep prosperity in Bridgeport; that we can make it a city of good homes, made secure by good work, good wages, good hours, good people.

The awakening is coming. The newspapers are getting interested and doing good work. You must remember that the editors have to save the nation three or four times a week and this takes much space as well as effort.

The merchants are sounding the slogan adopted by the Chamber of Commerce, and it is good—a platform broad enough for us all.

The Chamber itself is working hard on the homes problem and it looks as if they would DO SOMETHING.

The new cabinet is inclined to conform as closely as possible with the terms of the provisional constitution of the republic, which provides that the vice-president shall become head of the government upon resignation of the president.
